PAWING THE EARTH.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN STILL BLOWING AND CROWING.

He Will Fight Anybody—Peter Maher, the Irish Champion and Heavyweight, Tries to Jump from a Car Window in North Carolina.

NEW ORLEANS, March 7.—In answer to Sullivan's letter offering to fight Slavin, Mitchell or Corbett, President Noel of the Olympic club forwarded John L.
 Sullivan articles of agreement for a glove contest to a finish with Charley Mitchell, the meeting to take place next October for a purse of $35,000.

It may be stated that Mitchell is very anxious to meet Sullivan and before he left the city he placed in the hands of President Noel a paper authorizing a match between himself and Sullivan or any other pugilist.

Corbett Will Not Fight Choyinski.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—In an interview Jim Corbett said that he had authorized no one to make a match for him with Choyinski and he will not fight him, having already bested him four times. Corbett expresses his willingness to meet Fitzsimmons or the winner of the Jackson-Slavin match.

What John Says.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 7.—An Associated Press representative interviewed John L. Sullivan on Mitchell's answer to his challenge and the "big fellow" said:

"I have read Mitchell's reply to my challenge and can say it is on a par with his entire attitude toward me. He asserts that he stood me off twice and extracted forfeits on both occasions from me as the records of the contest will prove.
 These men have hounded me ever since Harrison and myself formed our partnership. They came here full of blow and bombast professing to have plenty of money to back either or both to fight me, knowing my hands were tied, but on being called by Charles Johnson of Brooklyn, who deposited $3500 with the New York Herald, they were found wanting. That deposit remained up for nearly a year. They never covered it.
 They hammered away at me with all sorts of challenges and bluffs. My challenge is issued, but I will make any concession in reason to meet this Mitchell or Slavin or any other fighter. Any reputable or honorable stakeholder will suit me. The only things I insist on are that the match takes place between the middle of August and the first week in September at the outside. Marquis of Queensberry rules to govern. I am justified in this for the reasons that my season ends in June with Harrison and we resume Sept. 1 and our contracts are made. I must have an outside bet of proper dimensions to justify me in preparing for the contest, as I don't propose to have them sneak out of it when it comes to an issue. Marquis of Queensberry rules I regard as the only fair rules, as under their government a man must fight, not run away. If Mitchell, Slavin, Corbett or the rest mean business, let them act and not talk and cry about my weight. That is disad-vantage rather than an advantage, and simply stamps Mitchell's assertions as ridiculous and laughable, which anyone who knows anything about fighting will concede. My ultimatum is made.
 My challenge, which is entirely my own, is out. If these men mean business they know where to find me. If not, they had better cross the pond and seek English pence, not American dollars."

Duncan B. Harrison, who was referred to by Mitchell in his interview as the author of the challenge of the champion of the world, said:
 "I have seen Mitchell's reply to Sullivan's challenge in this morning's paper in which he stated that it is evident that the challenge emanated from me. That is simply a manufactured story out of the whole cloth and in my conviction is simply an effort on the part of Mitchell to evade an issue. Sullivan himself was the author of the challenge. This can be proven beyond the peradventure of a doubt."

Maher Attempts Suicide.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., March 7.—When the vestibule train was ten miles from the city Peter Maher, the Irish champion heavyweight, attempted suicide by trying to jump out of the window. The train was going at full speed. The Fitzsimmons-Maher party of ten men who had been to New Orleans to witness the fight were returning north. They had a stateroom and several other seats engaged. Fitzsimmons and his friends were chatting and smoking and were not taking special notice of Maher, who sat in a seat by himself. Maher raised the window next to which he was sitting and leaned out. He had been suffering from a pummeling. Those who noted the action thought he wanted fresh air.
 He sprang from the seat and made for the window. In an instant Fitzsimmons guessed his intention and bounded toward him. With the assistance of the others he rescued him. A physician is the party administered an opiate, which put him to sleep.

Robertson for Hill.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Congressman Robertson announces himself as a Hill man. The fact that Louisiana is about the only southern state that has not included Hill to cross her border is noted with some interest here. When the fact was brought to the attention of Representative Robertson he said that he had noticed the omission, but supposed it was due to the fact that the Democrats of Louisiana were engrossed in the political fight. "I am a Hill man," added Representative Robertson, "because I think that he is the most available."

The Kentucky Way.

LOUISVILLE, March 7.—Near Mt. Vernon Emmett Snodgrass, town marshal, was shot and killed by his brother, Isaac Snodgrass. It was the result of Emmett having killed his brother, "Squire" Snodgrass, some two years ago.

The Founder of Montreal.

MONTREAL, March 7.—The model of the statue to be erected in honor of Maisonneuve, the founder of Montreal, on the opening day of the World's fair at Chicago, the 25th anniversary of the founding of this city, has arrived from Paris and is a fine example of the best French art. It represents Mais-noneuve in the attitude of a conqueror taking possession of the land. He holds a flag in his right hand, while the left rests on his sword and he appears as if marching forward. At the base of the monument are four groups of statuary representing historical events.

Texas and Pacific Wreck.

EL PASO, Tex., March 7.—A freight train was wrecked on the Texas and Pacific railroad near Finley, about seventy miles from this city, killing the engineer and completely demolishing the locomotive and several cars of freight.
 The accident was caused by a broken flange on one of the front truck wheels.

The fireman and head brakeman escaped injury. The former was thrown twenty feet from and on the opposite side of the track from the wreck, while the latter held to the top of a box car which, though derailed and piled up on the other cars, remained right side up.

A Judge Crazy.

PITTSBURG, March 7.—Ex-Senator John C. Newmyer of the supreme court of the western district of Pennsylvania suddenly became insane while en route on the western express from Jersey City to Pittsburg and he drew a revolver and frightened the passengers by threatening to kill a prominent Presbyterian minister whom he said had gone away with Mrs. Newmyer. His condition is dangerous. He is suffering from erysipelas as a result of an operation performed on one of his feet lately and has acted on his brain. He was taken to a hospital.
 The story about his wife has no foundation.

An unusual offer —the one that's made by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

 Unusual, but made in good faith.
 It's a reward of $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh. If you have one, the money's for you. But you can't know whether you have one, till you've tried Dr. Sage's Remedy.
 What's incurable by any other means, yields to that. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, it cures the worst cases, no matter of how long standing.
 That's the reason the money can be offered. There's a risk about it, to be sure. But it's so small that the proprietors are willing to take it.

The symptoms of catarrh are, headache, obstruction of nose, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody, putrid and offensive; eyes weak, ringing in ears, deafness; offensive breath; smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Only a few of these symptoms likely to be present at once.

 dent person should neglect it. Take
